COLLEGE COMMENCEMENT.

The first of the college exercises ending the year 1908-09 took place last Friday evening when the two literary societies held their diploma night exercises. The Rev. O. P. Hoffman, pastor of the Trinity M. E. church, delivered the address of the evening.

Sabbath evening the baccalaureate sermon was delivered by Dr. David McKinney, at the R. F. church in the presence of a large audience.

Monday evening the faculty reception was held in the rooms of the Carnegie library. A large number of students and former graduates were present to enjoy the pleasures of the evening. Refreshments were served the students and invited guests and the evening was one of real pleasure.

Tuesday evening the class play was given in the opera house and was one of the best things ever put on by local talent. "Half-Back Sandy" a story of two college teams as foot ball rivals in the city of Regalton. Both want the same half-back. The story was clear and furnishes some inside to the great sport. The characters were all well put on and greatly impressed the audience.

The musical recital held in the opera house Wednesday evening was very poorly attended. The following program was rendered:

Voices of the Woods. (Women's voices) Rubenstein, Verna Bird, Beth Ervin, Grace Beckley, Vera Andrew, Wilhelmina Mifflay, Martha Knott, Martha Anderson, Mary Ervin, Louise Barber.
The Call of Love. (piano) Helms-Ethel Spencer.
Love. (vocal duet) Piusette-Verna Bird, Ernest McCallan.
Devotion. (piano) Bennett-Helen Creswell.
Inspiration. (piano, four hands). Webb-Irma Creswell, Eula Creswell.
My God and Father While I Stray. (vocal) Marston-David Brigham.
Im Schonen Mai. (piano) Lillian Della McCann.

Four-Part Chorus, Lucia Wengert for Yea. (vocal) Combs, Vera Andrew.

Serenade. (piano) Schuberth Spindler-Grace Beckley.
Bohemian Girl. (piano) Balfe-Dora-Maria Anderson.
The King of the Winds. (vocal) David-Ernest McCallan.
Early Festival. (piano) Wilson-Inez Shepherd.

A Winter Lullaby. (vocal) De Koven-Beth Ervin.
By the Mountain Stream. (piano) Bohm-Ruth Flaster.

Rainbows, Dutch Lullaby (vocal) Hawley-Verna Bird.
Le Printemps. (piano) Schuberth-Martha Knott.

Out of the Deep (vocal) Marks-Martha Anderson.
Hark! Hark! the Lark! (piano) List-Vera Andrew.

Merry June. (chorus) Vincent. Thursday morning the commencement exercises drew a large crowd. Owing to the death of President McKinney's father Dr. McChesney presided. The following were the graduates and their subjects:

Americans of the Future—Verna Bird; The Making of a Man—Hilroy Conner; The Invasion of American Ideas—Julia Harrison; Elements of Leadership—Wm Hawthorne, Jr.; The Heritage of Citizenship—E. B. McCallan; The Age of Brotherhood—Jesse Orr; Modern Slavery—Wm Waide. Benediction.
*Philosophical.
Music was furnished by Bigio's Orchestra of Springfield. Misses Vera Andrew and Martha Knott were graduates from the musical department.

The diplomas were presented by Nathan L. Parks following a brief address by Dr. McChesney. A memorial was read by Mr. Parks that had been passed yesterday at a meeting of the Board of Trustees over the death of Thomas Gibson, former president of this board.

The degree of Doctor of Divinity was conferred on Rev. Daniel Brownlee, pastor of the Presbyterian church in Clifton and Rev. Cornarius Joseph Kellner of the Third Lutheran church, Springfield.

Dr. McChesney announced the Alford prizes for German and Greek Recitation. The prizes were won by Ernest Foster the latter. Each received five dollars.
Prof. Raymond Fitzpatrick leaves the college to take up the work in the O. B. U., where he will teach and pursue his study of chemistry. Two new teachers have been selected. Prof. E. S. Corbin will have charge of mathematics, coming here from Canfield College. Prof. A. J. Palmer will teach science and comes from Wooster, where he graduates this month.

Among the graduates and former students that gathered for the Home-Coming were: John Graham, Rev. Clarence Ware, Jamie Moore, Belle Middleton, Mary Little, Charles Galbreath, W. J. O. George, Rev. R. B. Wilson and wife, Sarah McCown, Margaret Leakey, Faye Leakey, Mr. and Mrs. Milton Hanna, Carrie Hutcheson, John Nash, Florence Russell, Rev. W. R. Graham and wife.

Little Boy Escaped Injury.

Miss Mary Turner, who resides north of town on the Clifton pike attempted to change the bridle on the driving horse while at the home of Mr. David Turner last Saturday afternoon. The animal was hitched to the buggy when it broke away in a frightful run for home.

Sitting in the buggy at the time was a little nephew of Mrs. Turner who had a wild ride behind a runaway horse. The animal passed through Clifton and did not meet with harm until the horn of the road was reached at the home fence coming towards Cedarville. Here the buggy was overturned and the contents and little boy deposited along the roadside. The horse broke loose from the buggy and ran to the residence of Mr. H. N. Coe, where it was stopped. The little fellow escaped any injury and the only damage was to that of the buggy.

Parade For Wright Bros.

Dayton expects to entertain at least 100,000 visitors on June 16th and 17th in honor of Wright Bros. At this time medals will be presented them by the government, probably President Taft, Governor Harmon for the state and Mayor Burkhardt for the city. It is expected the parade will be the largest in the history of the city and that thousands will be in line. There will be a number of floats and bands.

Wright Bros. will be the first to land on the island. H. H. McGillicuddy, business manager of the city in his airship balloon.

Miami Valley Chautauqua.

No one is looking forward with more pleasure than the children to the fourteenth annual assembly of the Miami Valley Chautauqua which opens July 16 and closes August 16. The first thirteen days will be on the same plan as in former years. The last ten days a band of 80 full-blooded Indians will present Hiawatha. As a means of presenting the legends, myths and customs of North American Indians in concrete form, Longfellow's Hiawatha is without a rival. To the Indian the performance is as solemn as the Passion Play is to the peasant actor of Ober-Ammergau. 40 full-blooded Indians will present this beautiful legend every afternoon and evening. They will live in wigwams on the river bank and live as they are used to in their own homes. It will be a real Indian village and such a scene as has not been presented here for a hundred years. The performance is a most beautiful open air spectacle. This feature was added at the desire of many Chautauquans who felt that the eighteen days was entirely too short. This will be only one of the many features which have been planned for this season.

Nearly 400 tents were erected before the middle of May and the exceptionally strong program and the interest manifested assures one of the best years at Chautauqua. Thousands are finding each year a much more desirable and healthful vacation at Miami Valley Chautauqua than can be had elsewhere, and also at much less expense. Send for a full program to F. Gillum Cramer, Chautauqua, Ohio.

Death of James Wylie.

Word was received Wednesday of the death of James Wylie in Denver, Colo., where he has been located for a number of years, having a position with a large department store. No arrangements have been made for the funeral but burial will likely be made in that city.

NEXT WEEK AT SPRINGFIELD.

All things are now ready for the celebration of Ohio's fiftieth year in Interdenominational Sunday-school Work in connection with the Golden Jubilee State Sunday School Convention at Springfield, June 8, 9, 10.

A program requiring the constant use of several auditoriums and the services of fifteen famous specialists has been prepared as the educational and religious menu for this occasion. Little attention will be given to historical reminiscences, but much to the future of Sunday-school work.

A great Adult Class Demonstration has been planned for the middle day, in which several thousand men will be in line.

Governor Harmon will speak a message of congratulation at that time.

A Teacher-training Demonstration is announced for Wednesday evening, at which is expected that a thousand students will be graduated and receive Teacher training diplomas.

For other details see program now ready. Apply to the Sunday-school Association, 70 Surgery Bldg., Columbus, Ohio.

A Cyclone Of Ambition.

(Copyright, 1904, by American Press Association.)

If a young man had told Thompson Thomas six months before the general election of 1904 that he would be a candidate for office he would have laughed him to scorn. Thompson Thomas was the most unassuming man in the world. Small, bald, nearsighted, with a soft voice and extreme gentleness of manner, he was especially unfitted for participation in an exciting campaign.

One day a widow, impetuous and ambitious, hearing of Mr. Thompson and his income, made up her mind to marry him. There are various ways of appropriating a man. The widow chose that of carrying him by storm. When the storm was over Mr. Thomas was a married man.

The wedding occurred five months and two weeks before the election. At the end of a week's honeymoon Mr. Thomas took up his paper one morning and read:

There is a movement on foot to place Thompson Thomas, a rum shop politician of the Seventh ward, in nomination for mayor. We hope it will not succeed. We need a practical business man for the position, not a drone.

Mr. Thomas was astonished. Calling his wife, he showed her the item. "Well," she said, "I know I've married a drone, but I don't intend that my husband shall remain a drone. I have some ambition. I and you are one. We will work together. I am arranging for your candidacy myself."

"But, my dear,"

"I have the promise of the boss that you shall have the nomination. All that is required is your check for $5,000 for election expenses."

"Five thousand dollars?"

"Which will be well spent. You have never taken any stand in the town, whatever, but the majority will."

Mr. Thomas groaned. Then he showed a bit of fight—the only fight he had ever shown in his life—but Mrs. Thomas so out-Heroded Herod in a war of words that her husband was cowed. He did not consent to the movement, his wife had inaugurated any more than a man could be drowned; he was simply submerged.

The $5,000 was handed in to the boss, who after depositing the lion's share to the credit of the "organization" began paying out the rest to the heeler. Thompson Thomas received the nomination. Judge T. J. T. put up an opposition, and the people became greatly interested in what they considered their franchise as American citizens. The morning after the nomination Mr. Thomas was surprised to read in a journal—the mouthpiece of the party he represented—an interview with himself. He was not aware of having been interviewed and spoke of his astonishment to his wife. She informed him that it was a "faked" interview for political purposes. Among other things that had been put into his mouth, was this:

"Mr. Thomas, what are your views concerning the trust?"

"I consider them entirely unnecessary to the good of the people."

"And how do you stand on the labor question?"

"I look upon the laborer as a man and a brother. If elected, I shall do all in my power to advance his interests at the expense of his employer."

Mr. Thomas was indignant. "What pothouse politician put that in my mouth?" he said to his wife. "I would

A "BIG" WEEK FOR SPRINGFIELD.

Ohio State Sunday School Convention..... June 8, 9, 10.
Horse Show-Springfield Horse Show Assn..... June 9, 10, 11.
United Commercial Travelers State Convention June 10, 11, 12.

Sixteen squares of the mercantile and wholesale districts bedecked in gala attire and the merchants all trying to outdo each other in arranging the greatest carnival of bargains in the history of the city. This explains in brief the preparations that have been made or are under way for Springfield's big week--NEXT WEEK.

Between 15,000 and 20,000 Strangers Expected.

With fair weather, it is predicted that strangers to the number of 15,000 to 20,000 will visit Springfield next week. This estimate includes the delegates to the Sunday School and Commercial Travelers' conventions, those who will come especially for the Horse Show, hundreds of others who will take advantage of the reduced cost of transportation to spend the day sight-seeing in the "City of Homes," and the additional hundreds of shoppers who will come some day during the week in order to profit financially by the exceptional reductions that will be made on seasonable merchandise.

Free Carfares to Springfield and Return.

All delegates to the conventions, visitors to the Horse Show, pleasure seekers and shoppers can if they so desire, secure a refund in cash of their round trip carfare. This is possible under the offer of The Merchants Association of Springfield.

As every person at this season of the year must of necessity invest in merchandise of some character. It is suggested that all who expect to visit Springfield next week delay their purchase until that time. They will save the cost of their carfare and will also make a saving on each and every purchase. While Springfield's fame as a shopping center is widely known the merchants will double their efforts to demonstrate to strangers that the "Home City," is the best place in Ohio to trade.

The lowest possible cash price will be marked on every article and yard of goods and the stores will undoubtedly do a larger week's business than during the holidays. Regular patrons of Springfield stores will of course reap the benefit of the extraordinary bargains as well as the new customers.

Where to Obtain Carfare Rebate Book.

All members of The Merchants Association have a supply of Carfare Rebate Books and issue them to non-resident customers upon request. However, all persons who contemplate visiting Springfield next week may secure a book and full details of the plan by addressing

WILBUR M. FAULKNER,
Secretary of the Association
Springfield, OHIO.

MEMBERS OF THE MERCHANTS' ASSOCIATION OF SPRINGFIELD.

This is a complete list of the organization's membership. Purchases must be made of any of the following firms in order to receive the carfare refund and one per cent. excess rebate. No other Springfield stores pay carfares.

A FRIGHTFUL CONFLICT.

Battle With a Maniac on a Chimney
250 Feet High.

"Every time I see a tall chimney," said an Englishman, "I am reminded of a thrilling affair that happened when I was a lad in England, my birthplace. A 250-foot chimney had just been completed, and two bricklayers only were left on the top to put the finishing touches on it. Both of them were big men. One of them, a fellow of gigantic strength, went suddenly insane just as the last bit of work was done on the chimney, and his companion looked on with horror while the maniac deliberately cut away the rope ladder leading from the top of the chimney to the ground.

"The maniac no sooner did this than he turned to his companion and calmly announced that he was going to throw him over the side of the chimney to the ground. They closed, and a terrific protracted struggle ensued. The workmen down below had seen the rope ladder when it struck the ground, and they knew at once that something was wrong with the two men at the top.

"They got away from the chimney at a sufficient distance to see what was going on up at the top, and they witnessed the frightful encounter between the two men. The maniac frequently by pure strength got his companion over to the very edge of the chimney. Every time he did this the sane man would muster up all of his force and push the madman back. The hand to hand battle went on for hours, while a company of firemen down below were endeavoring to shoot a line over the chimney by means of a rocket cannon. Finally the sane man got a certain hold on the madman and broke the latter's arm. Then the maniac lay quiet.

"After hours of aiming the firemen managed to get a line over the chimney, which the exhausted brickmason, almost 'all out' from his terrible struggle with the insane man, grabbed. Then he drew up the rope ladder, fastened it and came down to the ground, sinking into a semicomatose condition from which he did not emerge for days.

"Two firemen volunteered to go up the rope ladder after the maniac. They had nearly reached the top of the chimney when the insane man walked over to the edge, looked around quietly for a minute or so, paying no attention to the cries of his rescuers, and then dived headforemost to the ground. He was probably dead before he struck the earth, and he was picked up a shapeless mass."--Exchange.

GOOD ROAD POINTERS

Suggestions to Supervisors on the Care of Highways.

SIMPLE BUT USEFUL DON'TS.

Expert Tells How to Keep a Road in Good Condition and Avoid Trouble. Don't Be Satisfied, He Says, With Anything but the Best.

Excellent advice on the care and construction of roads is contained in the following set of suggestions to road supervisors, which were compiled by Robert A. Meeker, state supervisor of roads in New Jersey:

Don't leave grass and weeds on the shoulders and in the gutters.
Don't dig the mud out of the gutters and throw it upon the road.
Don't leave dirt in piles on the road.
Don't throw grass and weeds upon the road surface.

Don't dump stone or gravel on an old road without first preparing the surface to receive it, because you thereby cause willful waste and wear.

Don't place new material on the road without leveling and shaping it so that the grade and cross section of the road will be unchanged.

Don't expect travel to spread and roll the new material. One-half of the money spent is wasted by this method.

Don't put new material on an old hard road surface before first picking or loosening the old covering. It is good for the quarryman and gravel owner, but bad for the taxpayer and road user.

Don't try to do work without proper tools.
Don't leave your scarifier in the shed.
Don't forget to use your sprinkling wagon.

Don't let your steam roller be idle.
Don't think any old tools are good enough for road work.

Don't use dull picks, broken shovels, dull scrapers, blades or broken and leaky steam rollers.

Don't waste your rainy days.
Don't let water stand on your road.
Don't try to repair a road in dry weather without a liberal use of water.

A ROAD LEFT TO TAKE CARE OF ITSELF.

Don't allow culverts or pipes to become choked up.
Don't allow the outlets of underdrains to become stopped up.
Don't let water get under a road.
Don't let rats form.

Don't let the road lose its original cross section.
Don't let the shoulders get higher than the center of the road.

Don't fail to widen your ditches at every opportunity. No better place for the mud, grass and weeds taken off the road than on the sides of high embankments.

Don't use guard rails if you can get dirt to widen your road.
Don't bury a stone road under mud.
Don't crown your road so high that no one will travel on the sides.

Don't forget that the entire width of the road is intended for use.
Don't expect a road to take care of itself.

Don't fail to locate all good repair material lying on or near the road.
Don't wait until you are ready to go to work before you procure the necessary materials for repair.

Don't be constantly changing your road gang.
Don't let experienced men go simply to give some one a job.

Don't lose sight of the fact that road repairing is a trade and must be learned.
Don't guess at the amount of material required. Measure and know.

Don't depend on some one else to tell you what the condition of your roads is.
Don't fail to visit every road under your care at least once a week.

Don't refuse to try any new material that may be offered unless the same has been proved bad.
Don't think there is nothing more to be learned about road building.

Don't forget that nobody knows it all.
Don't think because you do not hear the comments that your work is not being praised or criticized, as the case may be.

Don't look down on your work.
Don't lose sight of the fact that good roads are one of the greatest factors in the development of any country.

Don't forget that churches and schools cannot thrive without good roads.
Don't be satisfied with anything but the best.

Pennsylvania's New Roads.
According to the report of the state highway commissioner of Pennsylvania, 325 miles of new roads were built during the past year at a cost of $3,000,000 or more.

MAYOR'S NOTICE.

To the owners of lots and lands in the village of Cedarville, Ohio. In compliance with the requirements of Section 4739-A of the Revised Statutes, I hereby notify the owners of lots and lands in the village of Cedarville to cut and destroy all Canada and common thistles and other noxious weeds growing on any such lots and land within the corporation, so that they may not mature seed or spread to adjoining lands.

On failure of any such owner to comply with the law in regard hereto, the village council may employ persons to cut and destroy said noxious weeds and the expenses thereof will be a lien on said lots and lands and collected as taxes.

J. H. Wolford,
Mayor of Village of Cedarville, O.
May 6, 1909.

Very Serious

It is a very serious matter to ask for one medicine and have the wrong one given you. For this reason we urge you in buying to be careful to get the genuine--

THE FORD'S BLACK-DRAUGHT Liver Medicine

The reputation of this old, reliable medicine, for constipation, indigestion and liver trouble, is firmly established. It does not irritate other medicines. It is better than others, or it would not be the favorite liver powder, with a larger sale than all others combined.

The Fastest Growing Store in Ohio

The Greatest of All June Sales Begins Thursday Morning June 3d

It will be a sale of Dry Goods and Ready-made Garments that for quantity, variety, quality and lowness of price has never been equaled by any store in the United States. This being our first summer season in business, stocks of course are entirely new, which will relieve you of the burdensome task of selecting from stocks that have been accumulating for years and years to find only a few things among them that have been brought out for season 1909. The Home Store has accomplished more since they opened eight months ago by selling only the best merchandise that money can buy at a fairer price than some stores do in a life time. As every one says, if it's from the Home Store the style and quality is right, and more the price is less than other stores sell inferior goods at and to show our appreciation for the success you have made this store from the beginning we promise that this June sale which opens Thursday, June 3rd,

Will Be the Greatest Money Saving Event Ever Held Anywhere. Shop at Other Stores and Compare Quality and Prices, Then Come to The Home Store

The high quality of goods combined with the lowest prices on earth, has made this store grow faster than any store in Ohio. If you have not been here, you should attend this sale.

Goose Considered Sacred Bird.
To many peoples the goose was a sacred bird, and even to this day there are found many, especially in Asia, who will not kill a goose. The devout cherish a fond fancy that all geese perform an aerial pilgrimage to the holiest of lakes in the Himalayas every year, transporting the sins of the neighborhood, returning with a new stock of inspiration for the encouragement of the devout.

Must Keep Hands in Sight.
Every visitor to the White House must keep his hands in sight—during public receptions.

Absent-Minded Alderman.
A Lynn (Mass.) alderman at a recent aldermanic meeting inquired what had become of an order he had introduced some time before calling for an aright on Willow street. The city clerk, after digging into his files, informed him that the order had come before the board nearly a month previous and that he had voted against it.

Marks Kind of Honeymoon.
The honeymoon is mostly over when the couple quit buying their meals in hotels and the bride tries to provide them at home.—New York Press.

Wasting Letters.
We have only a few letters in the alphabet, yet many persist in wasting them. Here comes M. Pheuron, Mr. Lloyd, Mr. Brent, Mr. Llewellyn, Mr. Percoc, Mr. Whitlocks, Mr. Hammersley, Mr. Mayonnigale, Mr. Macerac, Miss Carrolline Welles, Miss Menulands, Georges Kheller, etc.—N. Y. Press.

Grass of Great Strength.
A steel-like grass which grows on the volcanic slopes of Oran, Algeria, is so elastic and strong that it can be used instead of springs in the manufacture of furniture.
